

Wisconsin FFA Convention

<http://www.wisconsinffa.org/convention.php>

- Alliant Energy Center Exhibition Hall - 1919 Alliant Energy Center Way, Madison, WI 53713
- June 13-16, 2011
- Convention attire is business dress.
- Individual registration for the convention is free, but there is a parking fee. Three-day passes can be purchased at the gate.
- Housing information can be found on the convention website. All reservations through the housing block must be made by May 12.
- There will be two information/registration areas at both ends of the Exhibition Hall to assist where you can check in to the convention and get information about the location of various activities.
- Your role in the award presentation will be to shake the hands of the recipients and present them with the plaque, trophy or other item they may have earned. There will be escorts guiding you through the entire process. In some cases there are other forms of participation that are noted with the particular item.
